

Lot 26

Henrio

4yo g by Golan – Sarahall

A potentially high class four year old with a big future assured. Was slowly into stride on his debut over 2m 4f at Limavady but certainly gained in experience as he posted a huge effort next time at Loughanmore. That Loughanmore maiden was one of the best maidens run this season. The winner had been running well in the well regarded Lemonfield maiden before a bad mistake two out finished his chances but he went on and won here. The runner up is the first gelding run in point to points by Graham Wylie while this fellow was close up third. Not only was he only beaten by four lengths but his saddle slipped in the closing stages which restricted his rider gaining maximum effort from this fellow. Given that he has lived with some of the best youngsters round and had a genuine excuse for not showing his very best it is hard to imagine just how good he could be.
